About HomeBuilder

On 4 June 2020 the Australian Government announced HomeBuilder to provide eligible owner-occupiers (including first home buyers) with a grant of $25,000 to build a new home, substantially renovate an existing home or buy an off the plan home/new home.

The eligible contract must be signed between 4 June 2020 and 31 December 2020 (inclusive).

Construction need not commence prior to 31 December 2020, however, must commence within three months of the contract date. Further, construction cannot have commenced before 4 June 2020.

The Australian Government HomeBuilder Grant is subject to the provisions of the National Partnership Agreement between the New South Wales Government and Australian Government.

HomeBuilder compliments Revenue NSW existing First Home Owner's Grant (New Home) Scheme and First Home Buyers Assistance Scheme.

Eligibility criteria

Eligible applicants

---

HomeBuilder is available to individual applicants and couples who are or will be registered as the owner on the certificate of title. Each applicant must be:

- a natural person (not a company or trust)
- aged 18 years or older at the date of the contract
- an Australian citizen at the date of application.

When you must be registered on the certificate of title as the owner of the land or property depends on the type of contract you enter into:

- For contracts to build, you must be registered on title as owner of the land by no later than the laying of foundations and the first progress payment is made to the builder.
- For substantial renovations, you must be registered on the title as owner of the property at the time that you enter into the contract for renovation works.
- For off the plan/new homes, you must be registered on the title as owner of the property when the building is completed, and you are entitled to take possession of the home.

Applicant(s) must be below one of the following two income caps

- $125,000 per annum for an individual based on either your 2018-19 or 2019-20 taxable income, as shown on your notice of assessment issued by the Australian Taxation Office or
- $200,000 per annum for a couple based on either your combined 2018-19 or 2019-20 taxable income, as shown on your notices of assessment issued by the Australian Taxation Office.

A couple is considered as two people that are legally married, in a registered domestic relationship, or living as a couple on a genuine domestic basis, excluding people related to each other, for example, siblings.

Each applicant must not have previously received the HomeBuilder Grant for any property owned individually or jointly with another person in any Australian State or Territory.

Each applicant must live in the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least six months on completion of construction, renovation or settlement.

Investment properties are excluded from HomeBuilder.

Eligible homes

The home must be:

- located in New South Wales
- fixed to your land
- suitable as a place of residence, and
- owned, or will be owned, by you (both dwelling and land).

Eligible contracts

HomeBuilder is available for one of the following contracts signed between 4 June 2020 and 31 December 2020 (inclusive):

- a comprehensive home building contract to build a new home as your principal place of residence where the property value (house and land) does not exceed $750,000 (inclusive of GST),
- a contract with a registered builder to substantially renovate your principal place of residence where the renovation contract is between $150,000 and $750,000 (inclusive of GST), and where the value of your existing house and land does not exceed $1.5 million. If you own a property (house and land) and demolish the house to rebuild, or your home was destroyed during the 2019/20 NSW bushfires, these will be treated as a substantial renovation, subject to the same values,
- a contract to purchase an off the plan home/new home as your principal place of residence where the contract price does not exceed $750,000 (inclusive of GST) and construction had not commenced prior to 4 June 2020.

In all cases, construction cannot have commenced before 4 June 2020.

Construction must be undertaken by a registered or licenced building service 'contractor' who is named as a builder on the building licence or permit. Whether the contract is with a licenced or registered builder or developer, they must have held their licence or registration prior to 4 June 2020. In all cases, a valid copy of the builder's licence or registration needs to be provided to the applicant showing a licence or registration date prior to 4 June 2020. A copy of the builder's licence or registration will need to be provided as part of your supporting documentation for the HomeBuilder Grant.

Owner-builders are not eligible for HomeBuilder. An owner-builder means the person who is the registered or licenced builder and who takes legal responsibility for domestic building work carried out on their own land/property. Owner-builders therefore do not enter into an eligible HomeBuilder contract.

For off the plan home/new home contracts, construction can have commenced prior to the date of the sales contract, but not before 4 June 2020. You must also be registered on the certificate of title as the owner of the property by no later than 31 October 2022.

In negotiating the contract, the parties must deal with each other at arm's length. This means the contract must be made by two parties freely and independently of each other and without some special relationship, such as being a relative. The terms of the contract should be commercially reasonable, and the contract price should not be inflated or deflated compared to the fair market price.

If you have entered into a contract on or after 4 June 2020 that replaces a contract made prior to 4 June 2020 to build the same or substantially similar home, you may not be eligible to receive the HomeBuilder Grant.

Construction must commence within 3 months of the contract date. Where commencement is delayed due to unforeseen factors outside the control of the parties to the contract, a maximum extension of an additional 3 months may be provided.

When construction is considered to have commenced will depend on the type of contract that you enter into. Commencement of construction means:

For new builds	commencement excavation and site preparation works
For a substantial renovation	when the works under the renovation contract commence
For an off-the-plan build	commencement excavation and site preparation works

Where commencement is delayed due to unforeseen factors outside the control of the parties to the contract the applicant(s) can request a maximum extension of up to an additional 3 months by lodging a statement with supporting evidence for the Chief Commissioner to consider.

On application, the Chief Commissioner may consider exercising discretion in situations such as but not limited to the following:

- delays in obtaining council approvals;

- difficulties in obtaining construction materials and/or sub-contractors;
- inclement weather, where the disruption is substantial;
- health problems relating to, or the death of, a person critical to the commencement of the project;
- prolonged industrial disputes;
- natural disasters.

The Chief Commissioner is unlikely to exercise discretion in situations such as, but not limited to, the following;

- where an applicant does not undertake appropriate due diligence when entering into a contract, or makes deliberate and informed choices which make them ineligible without the exercise of the Chief Commissioner's discretion;
- where delay results from the builder contracting to undertake more work than they could be reasonably expected to complete in the relevant timeframe; or
- where construction is delayed because the land developer has set pre-development sales targets and insufficient blocks have been pre-sold in a subdivision.

Eligible substantial renovations

Substantial renovation can be either:

- substantially altering the existing dwelling, or
- demolishing your home and building a new home on the land.

To be considered substantial:

- the renovation does not need to involve the removal or replacement of foundations, external walls, interior supporting walls, floors, roof or staircases).
- However, it should improve the accessibility, safety or liveability of the property,

Given these requirements, a substantial renovation does not generally include:

- stand-alone granny flats, swimming pools, tennis courts, and structures not connected to the building such as outdoor spas, saunas, sheds or stand-alone garages; or
- renovations that are primarily cosmetic in purpose such as landscaping, painting or recarpeting.

Bushfire affected properties

If your home was destroyed in the 2019/20 NSW Bushfires, and you are rebuilding on your existing land, your application will be considered as a Substantial Renovation.

The 2019/20 NSW Bushfires are defined as:

- North Coast bushfires from 18 July 2019 onwards in a region as listed as a Natural Disaster Declaration by the Office of Emergency Management
- NSW bushfires from 31 August 2019 onwards in a region as listed as a Natural Disaster Declaration by the Office of Emergency Management

HomeBuilder payment

HomeBuilder will be paid once Revenue NSW is satisfied that you meet all the eligibility criteria. The timing of the payment of the Grant will depend on whether your application relates to:

- A new build – the Grant will be paid after foundations have been laid and the first progress payment has been made to the builder
- A substantial renovation – the Grant will be paid after construction has commenced and evidence is submitted showing payments of at least $150,000 of the contract price have been made to the builder
- An off the plan home/new home contract – the Grant will be paid after evidence is submitted showing that the property has been registered in your name on the certificate of title. You must be registered on the certificate of title as the owner of the property by no later than 31 October 2022.

Homebuilder will be paid into your nominated account when all eligibility criteria have been met and all supporting documentation provided. This account must be an Australian account (e.g. a savings account, a loan account, a cheque account).

Residency requirement

To qualify for HomeBuilder, each applicant must:

- retain ownership of the property and occupy it as your principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least six (6) months; and
- commence the above period of occupation immediately on completion of construction, renovation or settlement.

A principal place of residence is considered to be the home you primarily reside in.

Where an applicant was a member of the permanent forces of the Australian Defence Force and the applicant was enrolled on the NSW electoral roll at the date of the eligible HomeBuilder contract, then the applicant is exempt from the residence requirement.

To receive the exemption, you must provide a document issued by the Australian Defence Force clearly showing your name and that you are a member of the permanent forces at the date of the eligible HomeBuilder contract.

An exemption will not be granted if the document is not provided.

What should you do if you cannot meet the above residency requirements?

You must notify Revenue NSW and repay the HomeBuilder Grant within 14 days of the date you become aware you cannot meet the residency requirement.

Revenue NSW may require that applicants provide information to verify that they have met the residence requirement. Applicants should keep appropriate records that can demonstrate to Revenue NSW that the grant address was used as the principal place of residence.

If you have difficulties in meeting the residency requirement, please contact Revenue NSW to discuss your situation.
